IN MEMORIAM.

In sad and loving memory of my dear husband, Byrle T. Lewis who passed away three years ago February 2, 1917.

"Gone but not forgotten."

Sadly missed by the wife,

LULU E. LEWIS.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of my dear mother, Mrs. Annie Epperson, who was called away nine years ago today, January 29, 1911:

Mother, I miss you everywhere. Miss your advice, love and care; A faithful mother, so kind and true, I always pray and think of you. You're not forgotten in my mind. To me you were so good and kind; How my heart is filled with pain, I hope some day we'll meet again.

Sadly missed by her daughter,

HATTIE M. BUTTS,

1106 Highland Avenue.

Would You Stain Your Soul For a Man?

Is a woman justified in staining her soul to save her husband from disgrace? Such a problem is vividly presented in the William Fox morality production, "Why I Would Not Marry," coming to Love's Theatre, February 1st.

Is Marriage Taken Seriously Today?
Why do so many young people enter into marriage in a light-hearted way? Is it because they do not realize the seriousness of wedlock? Who is to blame? Get the answer in "Why I Would Not Marry," a William Fox morality production, coming to Love's Theatre February 1st.

In sad and loving memory of Hattie Scott, who passed away three years ago today, January 28, 1917. Sad and sudden was the call. Yet you had warned us of it all. But little we thought that on that day Our dear mother would be called away.

Forever freed from all her pain, It is our loss but Heaven's gain.

Sadly missed by

MR. S. SCOTT, husband.
MR. H. H. SCOTT,
MR. S. SCOTT, Jr.
MR. ED JAMES SCOTT,
Sons.
MISS HATTIE SCOTT,
MRS. ED G. HAROLD,
Daughters.

Mrs. Agnes Goshier of Philadelphia, Pa., was the house guest of Mrs. M. E. Dougherty, 1617 Woodland Avenue. They were school girls together back in the old Quaker City and were delighted to meet each other. Mrs. Goshier will spend about ten days at Excelsior Springs and will again visit the city before returning East. Mrs. Goshier, who is a very charming and cultured little lady, was highly impressed with the progress being made by our people in this city.

LOVE'S THEATRE 24th and Vine Sts.

"ENTERTAINMENTS THAT ENTERTAIN"

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, Feb. 1, 2 and 3

The Collossal 1920 Morality Drama
Why I Would Not Marry

A dramatic production of unparalleled power and magnificence. If you have marriage in mind don't fail to see "Why I Would Not Marry"

If you are married you will see just what kind of a life you are living in "Why I Would Not Marry"

"Why I Would Not Marry" is a play that dissects the problem of marriage, laying bare the pitfalls, the snares, the selfishness, the cruelty and the heartlessness that often characterize the institution that has been called Holy Wedlock. This great play is pitiless in the searching light it throws upon the state of matrimony. It will make the selfish, thoughtless, complacent husband squirm. It will cause wives to look at life in a new light. It is a challenge to the world, and it rips away the veil of hypocrisy and deceit that has enshrouded marriage and made it a mockery among decent men and women.

NOTE--Don't fail to bring your husband, sweetheart or intended along to see this wonderful production.
